

On the 10 August at 5 p.m. in La Villa – Alta Badia– it will be staged in Castle Colz, thanks to the kind permission of the owner Mrs. Waltraud Wieser Pizzinini, the third edition of the event In the Castle of legends, dedicated to opera music and to the ancient tradition of ladin legends. This year it is on the programme the theme of love and legend at Moltina's Court with opera music by V.Bellini.

Susy Rottonara, musician and soprano from La Villa, will sing some of the most famous arias from the operas Norma, I Capuleti e i Montecchi, La Sonnambula and I Puritani accompanied on the piano by Ulrich Willeit and on the transverse flute by Iris Agreiter, who will also play some songs from the experimental opera Fanes Poem Musical – The Musical Poem of the Dolomites, composed by Susy Rottonara and winner of many international awards.

The author Roland Verra will present the main elements of ladin legends in the magic atmosphere of the Castle, animated for the occasion by background actors.

The event aims to enhance Castle Colz, one of the most important historic-artistic buildings of Alta Badia through a particular programme.

Admission: 12 €, aperitif included. Space limited, numbered seats. Information and reservation: Tourist Office Badia (lavilla@altabadia.org/ 0471 847037). Organisation by Cultural Association Fanes and Tourist Office Badia.
