

The dream of Dolasila

The exciting story of princess Dolasila, of the valiant prince Ey de Net, of the wicked sorcerer Spina de Mul and of the ambitious King of Fanes is set in the original locations of the legends deeply bound to the elements and colours of the wild nature of the mountains, inhabited by supernatural creatures.

During the afternoon it will take place an itinerant concert near the refuges Fanes and Lavarella, Lech Vërte Lake and the Parliament of the marmots. Susy Rottonara will sing and play at the piano her internationally awarded music from the multimedia concert The dream of Dolasila and the cultural association Lia Culturala Fanes will present the mythic tale. The event will be the occasion of a meeting between the legends of the Reign of Fanes, the most ancient cultural heritage in the oral tradition of the Ladin people of the Dolomites and the opera tradition. From the point of view of the protagonist Dolasila the classical themes in the legend become particularly actual and significant. The aim of the project is to promote the Ladin legends of the Dolomites and to make the public think about actual themes like the importance of feelings, of living in peace and in harmony with nature.

During the program the cultural association Fanes will present its activity about the promotion and preservation of the Ladin legends of the Dolomites.
